Speaker:

We are thrilled to once again introduce Bryce Phillips, President of Southern Tier Solutions, as our speaker for the event. Bryce's leadership and expertise are widely recognized across various prominent energy and land management organizations, including:

American Association of Drilling Engineers (AADE)

American Association of Petroleum Geologists (AAPG)

American Association of Professional Landmen (AAPL)

Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE)

Society of Petrophysicists and Well Log Analysts (SPWLA)

Bryce's involvement in these organizations is a testament to his commitment and knowledge of the field. He is a driving force behind Southern Tier Solutions, leading with an innovative and forward-thinking approach.

The Event:

We're excited to offer a catered environment with a selection of refreshments, perfect for enjoying while you delve into engaging conversations about our initiatives. Our open forum-style format gives you the liberty to arrive and depart at your convenience, allowing you to participate as your schedule permits. No registration or notice is required to attend.

But this event is more than a simple gathering – it's an interactive opportunity for you to connect with us, pose questions, and contribute your perspectives. Your involvement and feedback are crucial in sculpting the future of the Southern Tier.

New Webpage:

We're excited to unveil our new "News and Announcements" page on the Southern Tier Solutions website! This page contains the latest event schedules and updates. It's also where you'll find news features about our work. Keep this page bookmarked to stay connected with upcoming events and the latest on how we're driving change together.
